BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT & SALES

Bilingual, bicultural student bridging Japan and the United States - turning a global perspective into real business growth.

PROFILE

Globally minded student at Doshisha University's Institute for the Liberal Arts (ILA), focusing on law and politics, who grew up between Kentucky and Kyoto. Eight years in the United States gave me native-level English and a genuinely cross-cultural way of working, while competitive basketball taught me discipline and how to perform under pressure. At a Kyoto HR-tech startup I've turned that background into tangible results - sales strategy, SEO landing pages, and social marketing for MUSEPASS, a B2B recruitment SaaS. I do my best work in roles where international perspective, a business mindset, and clear communication come together to drive growth and customer engagement.

EXPERIENCE

Business Development & Sales Intern

APR 2024 - MAY 2026

Machitsuku Co., Ltd. - Kyoto, Japan - machitsuku.jp

- Led a sales team for MUSEPASS (musepass.jp), a B2B "pass-type" talent-pool SaaS that helps companies re-engage candidates who declined job offers - recognized in Japan's HR Award 2025.
- Drove sales strategy and customer acquisition by identifying corporate HR & recruiting prospects and refining outreach to hiring teams.
- Designed and optimized SEO-focused landing pages to improve search visibility, engagement, and conversion.
- Proposed and ran social and digital marketing initiatives that strengthened brand awareness and lead generation.
- Conducted market and competitor research across the HR-tech and recruitment space to sharpen product positioning.
